

MEDICAL BILL MAKES TROUBLE

Appears In The State Senate For Its Passage
Or Rejection Without Recommendation.

ALL BILLS NOW REPORTED UPON

Last Lap Of The Present Session Is Entered Upon-- Much Work Yet Remains To Be Decided.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., June 1.—The last lap of the legislative race is now on. The bills remaining in the hands of committees were reported last night according to the joint resolution and the final scramble for the salvation of the far-end measures, by their respective friends, and for their death, by their opponents, has commenced.

The railroad rate commission bill will reach the governor this week and he will quickly sign it, send it to the official paper for publication and as soon as possible name the commissioners and send their names to the senate for confirmation.

Much to Do

On account of the various hotly

controversial measures still before the legislature, it is extremely doubtful whether adjournment will be possible before June 14. Every day developes greater reluctance on the part of members to attend and it is daily more and more difficult to get a working body in the assembly. This gives opponents of a measure the power to hold up a bill by threatening to move a call of the house, in which event it is impossible to proceed with tice. The assembly passed the majority substitute and the minority proposal was offered again in the senate committee yesterday. Senators Manson, chairman of the committee;

Rogers and Smith favored the minority bill, declaring themselves in favor of trying a man first and taking away his license after he was found guilty. They argued that in this as in other cases the accused should be presumed innocent until proven guilty and that a board operating under extra-constitutional power ought not to be empowered to declare a man
guilty and compel him to seek a trial under the presumption of guilt. Senators Vilcox, Stoddard and Noble favored the assembly bill, declaring that the board should have large powers and that it would not be abused. They also declared that if a physician were wrongfully declared guilty he could prove his innocence in the courts. The other side rejoined that this would clothe the board with powers of persecution, that the board could declare a man guilty for one alleged offense
and after he had secured a reversal of that decision in a trial the board

business until the call is raised. Fifteen members cause a call of the house.

Medical Bill

One of the most bitterly contested fights of the closing days of the legislature was dumped upon the senate
last night by the committee on state affairs, being the controversy over the so-called medical advertising bill,
No. 353a, to empower the state board of medical examiners to revoke the licenses of certain physicians who are guilty of certain so-called immoral, dishonorable and unprofessional conduct in their practice and who advertisise improperly and claim to be able to cure diseases which are said
by some physicians to be incurable.
The advertising feature is not an element of the controversy, for that has been adjusted satisfactorily to all;
but the proposition to empower the board of examiners to revoke a physician's license and kill him professionally is the kernel of the fight. The senate state affairs had two long and heated sessions yesterday and last night finally divided equally, reporting
the bill without recommendation.

Original Bill

The original bill as offered in the

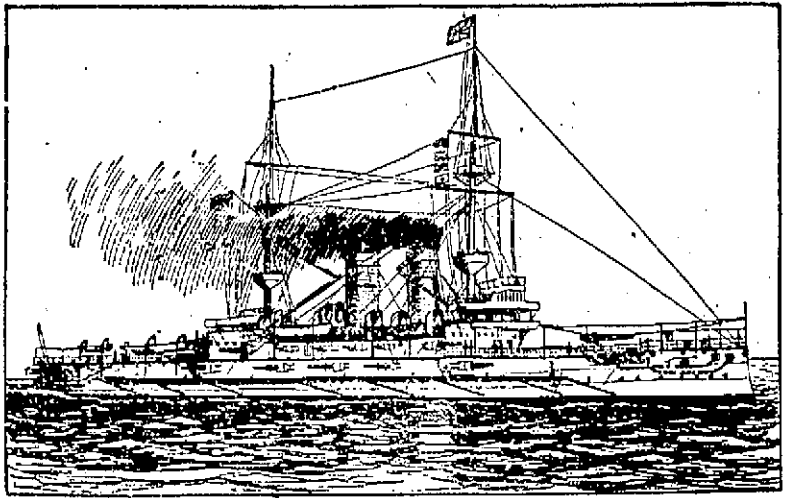

could pick up another similar offense,
knock out the man and compel him
in this manner to be under the presumption of guilt until he could secure another trial.

Heated Debate

The debate on the floor of the senate is assured to be heated and sensational. Charges will surely be made against the kind of physicians against whom the state board desires to operate and similar sensational charges will be presented against the physicians who are pushing this proposed legislation.

Fight Is On

It has been quite generally agreed by both sides, that some legislation
along the line suggested would be wise and is needed to guard against
"race suicide" practices by a large number of physicians and the fight has developed into a contest over the question of whether the state board of examiners should have the power to "kill the doctor and let him get a trial afterwards" or "prosecute the doctor and kill him after he is tried and found guilty." It is largely a question of legal procedure. The advocates of the assembly majority committee bill are assisted by Lawyer Bennett of Milwaukee, who has

JAPANESE BATTLESHIP MIKASA, ADMIRAL TOGO'S FLAGSHIP.

assembly by Mr. Dinsdale and by Senator Noble in the other house gave the state board the power to revoke a license and gave no opportunity for review by appeal or trial.
This was amended so as to give the board the power to revoke the license but allowed the physician the right to go into the courts and have a trial by jury. A minority of the assembly committee on judiciary offered a substitute bill providing that the board in such cases might proceed in the courts against any alleged unprofessional physician and that if found guilty after a trial by jury he should be deprived of his license to prac-

been in Madison off and on during the whole session, working hard for the giving of large powers to the state board. The physicians who are now trying to maintain the rule of trial by jury before conviction are assisted by A. J. Wilson, representing the Wisconsin Medical Institute, and have called in a number of prominent attorneys, among them T. W.
Spence of Milwaukee and R. M. Bash-ford of Madison.

Pass Rate Bill

The assembly passed the rate commission bill by a vote of 89 to 0. The

LATE REPORTS OF THE FIGHT

Admiral Togo Sends In His Official Report Of His Losses In The Conflict.

RUSSIA IS IN A TURMOIL TODAY

Linevitch's Report Of The Condition Of The Troops Makes Peace Seem Only Way Out At Present.

[SPECIAL BY SCRIPTS-M'RAE.]

London, June 1.—Baron Hayashia has received Admiral Togo's seventh report of the battle which places the total Japanese losses at eight hundred. The torpedo boats 24, 25, 69
which sunk were the only vessels lost by the Japanese. The Admiral says:
"The Oslabia was seriously damaged early in the battle on May 27, and left the line and sank at three in the afternoon. The Sishio Vladiv, the Admiral Nankimoff, the Vladimir Mon-march suffered heavily at mid-day and were so badly damaged by the torpedo boat flotilla that they were completely out of action. It was discovered the next morning drifting
near Tashima by the converted cruisers Shikanomaru, Yamamairu, Tsutamaru, Sodomaru, but went down before they could be captured, our ships
rescuing 915 survivors."

Struck By Torpedoes

"The Navy was struck by four torpedoes and sank. Three Japanese torpedo boats sank during the night attack of the twenty-seventh, but most of their crews were rescued.
The damage to the other vessels in-the Borodino sunk the admiral boarded the destroyer Bedovi, on which he was eventually captured.

Two More Sunk

Nagasaki, June 1.—It is rumored the Russian armored cruisers Rossia and Gromobol were sunk by torpedo-boats.

Are Captured

Tokio, June 1.—The Russian warships Off Izumrud and Kniaz Souvarov of the Aurora types, respectively arrived in Hamamaki and will probably be captured.

Hospital Ship

Shanghai, June 1.—The hospital
ships Orel and Kestroma were captured and taken to Sasebo, charged with infringing The Hague convention.

Nine Thousand

Tokio, June 1.—Later reports place
the Russian losses in the naval battle
at from seven to nine thousand men,
exclusive of the four thousand captured. Many bodies are being washed ashore.

Resentment Is Shown

The effect of the crushing blow dealt by Togo is little less serious at home than in the army. From cricluding the destroyers was very slight.

None were incapacitated for action as nearly the whole Japanese and Russian fleets were engaged in the field
battle which was greatly extended."

Weather Misty

"The weather being misty it was impossible to see more than five miles. It was therefore unable to keep in touch with all the division under me even in daytime. The battle occupied two days and two nights.
The enemy scattered in every direction and some of our vessels were engaged in duties subsequent to the battle, delaying a complete report for several days."

Griscom's Report

Washington, June 1.—Griscom reports: "In addition to the main force, four Russian second class cruisers
and subsidiary vessels were destroyed."

Urges Peace

St. Petersburg, June 1.—Advice from Berlin say the Kaiser yesterday forwarded an urgent dispatch to the Czar urging him to make peace. The message was followed by a long auto-

net ministers to Minister Moujikis,
who weep over the distressing details
of the catastrophe of Tashima, there is bitter resentment against the men and the system that, rightly or wrongly, are held responsible for the evils of the war.

The enemies of the government are active. The overwrought condition of the population makes it particularly susceptible to this agitation and there is serious danger that the industrial strife, which has been calming gradually since the demonstration of strikers before the winter palace on Jan.
22, will be revived in a more threatening form than ever before.

On all sides the cry is heard that the present regime is responsible and that it must be cleared out. The czar is no longer considered. Even M. Souvorine, editor of the Novoe Vremya,
demands that the people take the helm of state into their own hands. Admiral Alexieff's organ, the Slovo, ex-

graph letter bringing out the reasons why Russia could give up the present struggle with honor.

Volkersam Killed

Washington, June 1.—Minister Griscom reports: "It is officially announced that Admiral Volkersam was killed and not captured as reported on May 30th."

Not on the Kinaz

Tokio, June 1.—An officer of the Russian battleship Borodino, now a prisoner at Maizura, says while Rostovskiy raised his flag on the Kniaz Sousaroff, he was really on board the Borodino during the action. When ties enough and demand a change of regime that will give peace.

Believe Peace Is Near

Ministers, generals and admirals are unanimously of the opinion that Russia has lost its sea power for half a century to come. They think also that peace will come immediately; that England and America will help to modify Japan's demands and that internal reforms will bring about the regeneration of Russia.

Rumors spread everywhere Wednesday that the czar intends to resign.

MANY PLEASANT DAYS IN MONTH

MAY WAS STANDARD IN AMOUNT OF SUNSHINE

ACCORDING TO THE RECORD

But That Only Shows the Daytime Conditions—Heavy Rains Occurred at Night.

Opinions generally and crop reports seem to have placed May as record as a month of weather not as agreeable or warm as it should have been and much behind the usual May, but the weather conditions and temperatures recorded at Hainsworth's drug store show the month to have been very pleasant in the way of sunshine and there has been an increase of more than ten per cent in the high, low and general averages for May over those of April. This difference between April and May may be accounted for partially by the fact that many of the heavy rains, practically all but one, occurred during the night and was followed and preceded by bright days. The table of conditions shows that on nineteen days the sun was not hidden by clouds and shone freely the full length of time, while on five days did Janesville experience clouds and rain from the time when Old Sol should have risen until the time for setting. The other seven days of the thirty-one were of mingled sunshine and showers or sunshine and clouds.

Average Temperatures.
There is no way of settling the variance on the temperature question for those recorded in the table give the maximum and minimum for the full twenty-four hours and error in these not probable because they are taken from a self-registering thermometer. The average low was 49.8, an increase over the corresponding number for the previous month of 10.2 per cent; the high was 72.6, an increase of 10.9; and the general average was 61.2, an increase of 10.6. The lowest point to which the mercury descended was 39, which occurred on the first day and three times it ascended to the 84 mark, that being on the 3d, 4th and 5th.

SCOOPED ALL THE CHICAGO PAPERS

Just a Little Item, But Its Shows Up The Gazette's Telegraph Service.

There are times when a newspaper is justified in blowing its own horn. The Gazette takes this opportunity to extol the virtue of its news service by calling attention to a telegraphic dispatch which appeared in its columns last Friday relative to the purchase of an island from Russia by the United States. The dispatch reads as follows:

DOES AMERICA WANT TO BUY AN ISLAND?

Russian Report to This Effect Is Out But Nothing Definite Is Known.

[SPECIAL BY SCRIPPS-McRAE]
St. Petersburg, May 26.—Persistent rumors are in circulation here that the American government has proposed to purchase from Russia the island of Saghalien. Russia it is reported is willing to sell.

The Duplicate

Monday morning the Chicago papers, all of whom are subscribers of the Associated Press, printed the following dispatch relative to the same subject, just a trifle over forty-eight hours after the readers of the Gazette heard of it:

RUSSIA IS EAGER TO SELL SAGHALIEN TO AMERICA.
Special Cable Dispatch to The Inter-Ocean.

Vienna, May 29.—It is reported here from St. Petersburg that Russia is about to sell the island of Saghalien to the United States. Russia being anxious to prevent the Japanese from four states.

Testimony to the Efficacy of the New Scientific Dandruff Treatment.

James C. Rowe, of Livingston, Mont.: "Herpicide cured my dandruff and stopped my hair from falling." Orange McCombs, St. Anthony, Idaho: "Herpicide cleaned my scalp of dandruff and made my hair soft as silk and glossy."

W. H. Otis, Barber, Champaign, Ill.: "I used Herpicide on one customer for dandruff and on another for falling hair with excellent results."

P. W. Woody (Assistant Postmaster), Champaign, Ill.: "Herpicide completely stopped my falling hair."

J. J. Bentley, Sheridan, Wyo.: "Herpicide excellent for cleaning the scalp. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich."

WEEKLY LETTER ON THE GRAIN MARKET

What Was Doing in the Trading Circles in New York City Last Week.

(By J. S. Bache & Co.)
New York.—The feature of the past week in all grain markets has been the evening up of the May position, which had contained a considerable outstanding interest; shorts, on the ground that the abandonment of the May deal by the Wall Street bulls meant further declines; longs, on the theory that the strong sport situation would help their holdings. Less favorable weather coming toward the end of the month, accompanied by crop damage reports, caused the shorts to take the initiative and the price was run up rapidly early in the week, with new crop options following.

Late in the week, however, it looked as though remaining longs were letting go and reactions of 4 or 5 cents from the best point were secured, with quotations at the close on Saturday around $1.01 for May in Chicago and 90-1-8c for July.

COLD WEATHER HAS LEFT MARK ON CROP

Reports From Throughout the State Show That Warm Days and Nights Are Needed.

United States Department of Agriculture, Climate and Crop Service of the Weather Bureau, Wisconsin Section, Report for the Week ending Tuesday, May 30.—The weather conditions during the week were mainly favorable for the growth of crops and the advancement of farm work. The nights as a rule were decidedly cool and light frosts occurred in exposed localities in the central and northern counties early in the week, while on Thursday and Friday nights frosts of more or less severity were quite general over the entire state, doing some damage to fruits and tender vegetation on low lands. In some localities in the northern counties ice formed to the thickness of a quarter of an inch, and gardens and fruits were badly injured. Taking the state as a whole, the damage from frosts is not considered serious.

Rain occurred at intervals over southern and central counties during the week, retarding the planting of corn and potatoes and thoroughly saturating the soil. The continued cool, cloudy weather, while unfavorable to rapid growth, has not been detrimental to grains and grasses, which still retain a strong, healthy appearance and with warmer weather will come forward rapidly.

Winter Grains: Winter wheat and rye have made satisfactory progress and give promise of being good crops. Rye is beginning to head in some localities in the southern counties. Some rye on low land was damaged by the frosts.

Spring Grains: Oats, barley, spring rye and spring wheat present a thrifty appearance, and although growth has not been rapid, the plants are strong and healthy. Very little damage resulted to these crops from the frosts, and with the soil well stored with moisture, only favorable temperature conditions are needed for a very rapid advancement of these crops.

Corn: The planting of corn in the central and southern sections is about completed and the work is well under way in the northern counties. Early plantings have as a rule not germinated well on account of the cold, wet weather, and much replanting will have to be done. Some of the early plantings are up, but do not present a very thrifty appearance. Warm weather is needed to complete planting.

Potatoes: The planting of potatoes is progressing slowly on account of the cold, wet weather. Early plantings are up, but making slow growth. Grass and Pastures: Clover continues to make very rapid and rank growth and a heavy crop now seems assured. Timothy is doing well and pastures are furnishing an abundance of feed.

Minor Crops: Sugar beets are being sown, but as a rule the soil is not in condition for best results. Preparation of ground for tobacco is progressing satisfactorily. Gardens have made little advancement on account of cold weather.

Fruit: Apple, pear, plum, and cherry trees are well filled with blossoms. In some localities there was some damage by frost, but it was not considered serious.

Strawberries give promise of an excellent crop.

Extracts from Correspondents' Reports.

Montford, Grant county: Weather favorable for all growing crops; corn nearly all planted; some are replanting on account of poor seed; pastures and meadows good—Geo. Muender.

Pl. Atkinson, Jefferson county: Small grains and grass doing well; corn planting nearly finished; prospects for all crops good in this vicinity.—John Gates, Jr.

Modena, Buffalo county: Corn planting nearly all done and germinating nicely; small grain backward but looks good; pastures and grass in fine condition.—Sam Myer.

Dodgeville, Iowa county: Farmers are about through planting corn; cool weather with light rains; grass and small grains look good in this section.—R. Lane.

Kilbourn, Columbia county: Some corn planting yet to be done; only a few potatoes planted; apples beginning to set; rye is heading; strawberries in full bloom.—M. M. Hayes.

Darlington, Lafayette county: Fair most of the week, but rather cool; corn more than half planted; early planted coming slowly; strawberries looking fine.—Warren Gray.

Jefferson, Jefferson county: Weather just week has been good for farming; corn nearly all planted; some re-seeding necessary on account of heavy rains.—J. H. Winterling.

WHAT IS SEEN AT NIGHT

An Interesting Letter from a Janesville Lady Who Sees What She Writes About.

(By Miss Humphrey.)
Colon, Panama.—The law of compensation holds good on even so objectionable a piece of work as night duty in a hospital. It is always entered upon with dread and finished with rejoicing, but it has its advantages nevertheless. The month of May has been my time of service for night duty and it has furnished some interesting experiences. So carefully have I been warned against being out in the night air, and so faithfully had I heeded the warning, that I knew practically nothing of the southern constellations, a tropical moonlight and a tropical dawn. It is worth the hardships of night duty to be able to see and experience them. The southern heavens are quite different from the northern. One naturally looks about first at the big dipper. I was surprised to find it so high in the heavens as it is, I expected it to be low, almost at the horizon, but it is all of a third of the distance toward the zenith.

The Southern Cross
The southern cross was a great disappointment to me. I had pictured it as being composed of five or seven stars, all of the first magnitude, forming a perfect Roman cross. In reality it is composed of four stars, none of which appear to be of the first magnitude and one is so small and indistinct that unless the heavens are quite clear of clouds it is difficult to discern it. On a clear night, however, the four stars stand out with fine effect. The first disappointment being over, I can now see the beauty in the constellation. It lies low in the southern heavens and at present sets before midnight.

Orion Overhead
Orion lies nearly overhead, with the pleiades hovering close by in all their twinkling beauty. The milky way must be visible all the year here, at least it has been ever since I came. Just as the sun's rays are stronger because they are nearer the vertical, so are the moon's rays, and the brightness of the stars. When the sky is clear the heavens are indeed "inlaid with patterns of bright gold."

Moonlight Delightful
Moonlight in the tropics must even be an inspiration to poetical effusions. The lights and shadows are so intense, so pronounced, that they force themselves upon one's consciousness, so they cannot be realized their beauty and grandeur. A coconut grove by moonlight is sufficient to turn one's head with the beauty and witchery of its lights and shadows. The palm leaves look like immense ostrich feathers. All of the hard lines or detracting features of the fruit bunches and broken leaf stems are not visible in the soft light of the moon so only the grace and symmetry of the leaves themselves are seen. An artist's soul cannot but be satisfied with the beauty of these trees in the moonlight.

Break of Day
The dawn is somewhat startling to a northerner, accustomed as they are to a prolonged period of two hours or more from the first breaking of dawn to the appearance of the sun. Here the light advances so rapidly after the first indication of the breaking of day that in fifteen or twenty minutes artificial lights are unnecessary and in forty-five minutes the sun appears. The beauties of a northern sunrise are of course present. There are all of the different features—the first grey streak of light, the blue-grey mist, the bright glow of the sky, the rose glow, etc.—but one follows upon the other so rapidly they do not have time individually to sink into one's consciousness, and so are lost to the senses. You feel the beauty of the dawn as a whole but are not able to analyze its beauty into its integral parts as one can in the north.

Duty Is Lonely
Night duty at present in the Colon hospital is somewhat lonely for only one nurse is on duty at a time. There are five ward nurses to look after. Each ward has an orderly to attend to the immediate needs of the patients. It is the duty of the nurse to make the rounds of the five wards every hour to see that the orderlies are awake, and to give special attention to the patients wherever they are needed. One seldom makes a round without finding one or more patients in each ward who have a pain to be allayed (gentian compound or peppermint usually give the desired effect). These colored people are very emotional—a little pain is to them a case of "I'm dying, nurse." The worse, tasting the medicine is, the better satisfied they are with it. Their faith in the benefits of medicine is very amusing.

The Shocks
In going from one ward to another one often has an electric shock administered by some innocent crab scrambling along to get out of your way, and making a great noise about it with their numerous horny legs, or perhaps a large snail with his shell so curiously carried about on its short legs, goes crawling along at its usual snail's pace. Then, when all is at the most quiet stage about three o'clock in the morning a strange, unearthly call in a minor key breaks in upon the stillness and soon a herdman passes by on horseback with a herd of cattle following him obediently the call, little dreaming that they are being led to the slaughter-house, and will soon be carried over the same road back to the market, where they will be dealt out piecemeal to the hungry Colonians. Every morning at three a drove is taken to the slaughter-house and an hour later the cars go back filled with beef. All the meat and vegetables for the people of Colon are brought to the market by four o'clock and if one wants to get good meat and vegetables they must be at the market not later than five o'clock. Your supply for the day must be purchased then, for the market closes at eight o'clock. Grocery stores

WEEKLY LETTER ON THE GRAIN MARKET

What Was Doing in the Trading Circles in New York City Last Week.

New York.—The feature of the past week in all grain markets has been the evening up of the May position, which had contained a considerable outstanding interest; shorts, on the ground that the abandonment of the May deal by the Wall Street bulls meant further declines; longs, on the theory that the strong sport situation would help their holdings. Less favorable weather coming toward the end of the month, accompanied by crop damage reports, caused the shorts to take the initiative and the price was run up rapidly early in the week, with new crop options following.

There may be some further nervousness, but May is now practically out of the way, and the course of the market depends on the new crop, and new crop news, save as the continued firmness of the cash markets may help to rally prices after depressions until the new crop becomes available. We do not consider that much more will be taken the ordinary deterioration has taken place in wheat since the last government report. The next report will be published on the 10th of June, as usual, and we think pending that document we should sell short for a turn. In the event, however, of moderate prices presenting themselves as a result of such sales, we should accept them rather than take chances on the favorable character of the forthcoming report.

As we had half way apprehended, May shorts became very badly demoralized during the middle week, and ran May corn in Chicago up to about 63 cents a bushel, after which there was a very rapid break, with May closing on Saturday around 49 3/4c. July did not advance in keeping with May, of course, and has ruled relatively steadier on the decline, with Saturday's closing quotation showing a net gain for the week of about a cent a bushel, while May was 2 cents net lower, showing the liquidation of the May deal. Large, in fact, enormous arrivals of cash corn in Chicago to take advantage of the high prices reached earlier in the week undoubtedly frightened out the bulls, and after some private settlements had been made at the high points of the week, traders, as usual, were left to hold the speculative bag and receive the corn or liquidate. The new crop does not appear to be setting a very promising start, owing to continued rains, and we shall await the next government report with some curiosity. At the same time we think it is quite likely that the winding up of the May deal will have a sentimental effect in opposition to prices for the immediate future, and we should prefer sales on bulges.

Oats.
Oats advanced somewhat with other grains and held the betterments fairly well. July oats in Chicago are now selling around 30 1/2 cents. Should they advance much above that level we should sell them. On the other hand, should the market work down to around or a little under 25 cents, we should buy for a moderate turn.

Provisions.
Live hog statistics are against the market for products, but there seems to be little aggressive selling, and fluctuations continue narrow. Packers support the market at times, and it looks as though purchases might be made on declines.

THIRTY GUESTS AT A CHINA SHOWER

Given by Mrs. Thomas Griffin and Miss Maud Conroy for Miss Katherine Erdman.

In honor of her niece, Miss Katherine Erdman, who is to wed Edward Crowley of Chicago on June 7, Mrs. Thomas Griffin, assisted by Miss Maud Conroy, entertained some thirty guests at a china shower. A tempting supper was served and the guest of honor was the recipient of many handsome gifts. Among those present were: The Misses Lu Berry, Margaret Morrison, Nellie Houghton, Sarah Denning, Belle Charley, May Conroy, Margaret Quinn, Elizabeth Byrne, Elizabeth Charley, Kathryn Erdman, Gustia Lagerman, Anna Berger, Mary Miller, Mayme Condon, Mayme Erdman, Agnes Charley, Nellie Conroy, Della Worley, Mayme Griffin, and Ethel Howard of Evansville; and Messrs. James G. Brown, E. J. Clifford, and Dave Griffin.

LEWIS & CLARK EXPO. WAS OPENED TODAY

Portland Visitors Will "Hit the Trail," Not "Hike the Pike"—Buildings Beautiful.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Portland, Ore., June 1.—With the firing of cannon and musketry and the rejoicing of a multitude of people the Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition, celebrating the one-hundredth anniversary of the exploration and annexation of the "Oregon Country" now comprising the states of Oregon, Washington and large portion of Montana and Wyoming, opened here today. President Roosevelt was represented by Vice-president Fairbanks who made the principal speech of the occasion. Although it was impossible for any members of the cabinet to be present, every department of the government is represented.

Under Government Patronage.
The centennial exposition under the patronage of the United States government ever held west of the Rocky mountains, demonstrates the marvelous progress of the Pacific seaboard. Five million persons live in the section which is directly interested in the exposition.

"Trail" Not "Pike" or "Midway."
Compared with the St. Louis fair, the Portland exposition is a miniature but it equals those of Buffalo, Omaha, Atlanta, Nashville and Charleston. Portland is the principal city of the northwest coast and has a population of 120,000. It holds extensive commercial intercourse with the whole world. The exposition grounds comprise 402 acres, a part of which is on the mainland and a part on a peninsula extending into Guild's Lake. Connecting the two tracks is an ornate bridge which spans the lake. On this bridge is the "Trail," which corresponds to the "Pike" at St. Louis and the "Midway" at Chicago.

Some Large Appropriations.
The centennial represents an outlay of $5,000,000. The largest participant is the United States, which has appropriated $2,500,000. The state of Oregon has made an appropriation of $450,000, and other states have appropriated sums ranging from $10,000 to $35,000 for the exhibit.

Many Roses Blooming.
One of the most striking features of the exposition grounds is 5,000 rose bushes in full bloom which have been planted everywhere to add to the beauty of the landscape. There are great exhibit buildings, such as the Liberal Arts, Foreign Exhibits, Agriculture, State Buildings, Mining Building, Electricity and Machinery and Forestry, all filled with most interesting exhibits. Besides there is a fraternity temple which will be a headquarters for the members of secret and benevolent societies which will hold conventions here during the four months of the exposition. Public ceremonies will be held in Festival hall, which is a magnificent structure 335 by 125 feet in size with a stage seventy-five feet and seating capacity of 7,000. The only permanent building on the grounds is that erected by the State Historical Society, known as the Lewis and Clark Memorial Hall, built in honor of the discoverers of the "Oregon country."

Architecture Harmonious.
The buildings are all of the Spanish renaissance, harmonious in design. Fifteen foreign nations have representatives with exhibits. The electrical exhibit is one of the finest of any exposition ever held. The gates of the fair will be open on Sunday, when there will be musical concerts, religious-educational institutes and congresses of thought.

Roosevelt Starts Machinery.
Washington June 1.—President Roosevelt, this afternoon, from the east room, pressed the electric button which set the machinery of the Lewis and Clark Centennial exhibition at Portland, Ore., going. A brief speech was made by Mr. Roosevelt to a committee representing the exposition management, to which a reply was made. The same gold mounted key used by the President that started the machinery of the St. Louis Exposition.

Sewing Machines For Rent.
By week or month, at low rates. The Singer is acknowledged the lightest running and most convenient of any. Try one and be convinced. Only at the Singer store.

ALL ABOUT DOLLARS TO YOUNG MEN SENSE

If you are possessed of a laudable ambition to make your mark in the world, give the dollar your first attention. Not that we would have you cultivate mercenary motives, but rather make you familiar with the great power that moves the world—money. All great enterprises depend upon the mighty dollar for their success. Therefore, study how to make it; how to take care of it; how to use it; how to make it develop its best power. Its study bears directly upon the conditions that make life a success or a failure.

Men of high intellectual qualities fail because they lack executive ability—not educated to make proper use of the dollar; while men of inferior mental attainments rise to high places because they are good managers—understand handling the dollar. Your whole progress through life is accompanied by the click of the dollar.

Attend a business college where the study of the dollar is made a specialty. You should know how to calculate rapidly and accurately; understand business transactions, to keep track of the mighty dollar; become familiar with the principles of commercial law to protect you from practices tending to rob you of the mighty dollar. A RELIABLE BUSINESS COLLEGE WILL FURNISH ALL THIS.

To save the dollar, to get most value out of it, to invest it so that it will pay rich dividends, attend the

TWO RUNAWAYS IN EAST PORTER CAUSED BY AUTOS

Two Frightened Animals Travel Four Miles Ahead of Car at a Break-neck Speed.

East Porter, June 1.—Oscar Johnson's team ran away one day last week as a result of a fright which they received from a passing automobile. The same day Harvey Haylock was obliged to chase a horse and colt about four miles. They became terribly frightened and kept running ahead of the automobile at full speed. Decoration day was observed at the Fulton cemetery. A fine program was rendered.

Mr. Robert Pench's condition still remains about the same. Ernest Haylock recently delivered his 1904 crop of tobacco to Geo. Rummel of Janesville.

Whenever there is a pleasant day the farmers all hustle around and get all they can done between showers. Such a rainy season never was known here. Many farmers have found it impossible to get their corn planted yet.

Rev. Van Horn of Albion occupied the pulpit again in Fulton last Sunday.

Miss Minnie Saxby spent Monday and Tuesday nights at Wm. Gardner and attended the Decoration day services at Fulton.

Many of the young folks improved their last opportunity to hang may baskets Wednesday night.

Mrs. Ed. Jensen's mother, who is quite poorly, is with her at present.

Miss Amy Ross of Janesville and Miss Nettie and Blanche Thomson visited friends and relatives here last Sunday and attended church.

It is expected that Evan Sayre will be brought home from Chicago this week.

of its wealth, its power and its backing, has become a local railroad, gathering freight between Lake Michigan and the Missouri River for the benefit of the transcontinentals. When the Burlington was purchased by Mr. Hill in 1901 the fate of the St. Paul appeared to be sealed. This property was condemned to be a purveyor of profit to the Union Pacific. It was thrown inevitably into the traffic alliance with Union Pacific.

"That such a position for such a railroad was and is irksome may be taken for granted. That it will last can hardly be conceived. Undoubtedly the St. Paul will reach farther west. Contracts have been let, we understand, to McIntosh & Co. of Milwaukee for the crossing of the Missouri River at Chamberlain, S. D. and the pushing of the line to the Black Hills. Further than that nothing but the lightest of surveys have been run.

"West of the Black Hills the great question is laid squarely before the directors of St. Paul: 'Shall we push on to the coast, or shall we be content with a 1,000 mile haul, and use other tracks from this point onward?' 'There has been a difference of opinion. Weighty arguments have, we believe, prevailed to induce the St. Paul not to build all the way through. The point is that within the shadow of the Black Hills the St. Paul extension must cross the Burlington. Therefore, from that point, any Pacific line that the St. Paul might build must be physically able to compete with the Burlington-Northern Pacific route from that point to Seattle, Tacoma, etc.

"The St. Paul route must cross Wyoming and Idaho. If such a line can sustain itself as a local railroad, independent of its duty as a part of a transcontinental, the road will be built. As we understand it, the surveys are not today complete enough to enable the company to judge whether this line should be built or not. If it is built, it will be carried through only to a connection with the Oregon Short Line, using that railroad into Portland.

"It will be seen immediately that the St. Paul's position is full of possibilities but indefinite. There is no director or officer of the road today who can definitely say by what route the St. Paul will reach the Pacific. It is, however, fairly definite in the minds of all that it is to reach the Pacific. The alternative methods are as follows:

"1. By building its own line from Chamberlain to the coast—considered very unlikely.

"2. By building to a connection with the Burlington near the Black Hills and thence using Mr. Hill's proffered right of way over Burlington and Northern Pacific.

"3. By building from Chamberlain west to the Idaho state line to a connection with Oregon Short Line, thence using Harriman lines to Portland, Ore.

"One of the two latter alternative routes appears likely to eventuate."

The crowd that went north ten days ago to capture Deitz at $7 per day, seems to have been lost in the shuffle. The plan of attack was so well advertised that every man in the state knew three or four days in advance just how it would be done. It pays to advertise, and Togo don't believe in it when dealing with an enemy, and Togo is authority just now.

It is claimed that four submarine boats, built in this country and manned by Americans, accomplished the most effective work in destroying the Russian fleet. The machinery for these boats as well as the equipment was shipped to San Francisco by rail a year ago and thence by steamer to a secret navy yard in Japan.

The people don't know much about the primary law, and less about the rate commission. The result of the former will be to elect office seekers to office and the latter will be destitute of results so far as benefiting the general public is concerned, unless a distance tariff is established. In that event there will be kicking all along the line.

Children are taught to write, nowadays, by copying words. They don't know what the words mean or how to spell them after being reduced to writing. The result of this new fad will be a generation of people who are deficient in both spelling and writing, as any one has discovered who has occasion to employ a high school graduate.

Defective vision is common these days among school children. The fault is frequently located in poorly lighted school rooms, as is the case in one of the rooms in the old high school building where a room full of children are obliged to work in a room so poorly lighted that the eyes are under twilight pressure.

A $5,000,000 war ship in the hands of a Russian crew proved a plaything for Togo and his fleet. The man behind the gun is what counts today in naval warfare. The Japs had the man and knew how to shoot.

The advocates of shorthand spelling would do well to adopt the telegraph code, where all letters are omitted which can be guessed at with any degree of certainty.

The number of old people at the circus last Tuesday indicated that it required the grandfathers and mothers as well as the parents to look after the children.

One of the pathetic sights at the big canvas the other day was a group of blind children from the State School. They enjoyed the music and talked about seeing the elephants.

The circus has come and gone and the small boy will entertain the neighborhood by being all kinds of a monkey for the balance of the season.

The Ringling Brothers represent about all there is of the American circus today except the "Noneseuch Brothers," who refuse to join the combine.

Will the new brick pavement on south Main street be as full of holes as the old pavements. If not, why not.

The man who sleeps with a Hick's Almanac under his pillow, will spend most of his time in a cyclone cellar.

The assembly may be obliged to go out of business for lack of a quorum. Time to quit anyway.

If the police force is obliged to wear helmets, why shouldn't the mayor wear a "stovepipe"?

The little company of Japs were the biggest men in the procession.

Memorial day was properly observed in spite of the circus.

What is reform without a new constitution?

How would you like to be Togo?

PRESS COMMENT.

Chicago Record-Herald: But what does the uncommissioned hero get out of it? Who remembers the names of the men who helped Hopson sink the Merrimack?

Atchison Globe: A woman sometimes blames her mother's management because her father was poor, but in her own husband's case she blames the poverty on him.

Menasha Record: If the dressmakers have their way and force hoops on the women, will the tailors force Skidmore frock coats and bell crowned high hats on the men? Think of that, ye liberty lovers!

La Crosse Chronicle: The supercilious of the sedulous Shea in the Chicago strike will make friends for the unions. The committee may act sensibly while Shea never would.

Oshkosh Northwestern: It is claimed that the czar wept at the news of Rejstevsky's defeat. He may have still other chances to weep, however, unless he hastens peace negotiations.

Exchange: A. N. Jarvis of La Crosse and J. C. Brandel of Fort Atkinson are the leading candidates for commander of the Wisconsin Department United Spanish-American War Veterans at the state encampment at La Crosse, June 13-15.

Green Bay Gazette: Madison is using as an argument against the removal of the state capital to Oshkosh the fact that the latter city has sixty-five gambling joints. Well, another joint or two would make little difference.

Exchange: At a dance of St. Louis society folk a drove of pink pigs were driven into the ball room. St. Louis is getting pretty nearly as good as New York at that sort of thing and she never had any Harry Lehr to teach her, either.

Pond du Lac Bulletin: The Ringling Brothers left the circus going behind at Araboo when the show started out this year, so as to have a purer atmosphere for the people and animals that travel with it. Some political shows might profit from the example.

Boston Herald: Six old employees of the rubber shop of the late Hon. Elisha S. Converse have been retired on a pension of $25 a month. This is one good way of bringing labor and capital together. It softens the asperities of commercialism.

Milwaukee Sentinel: In spite of his almost tragic seriousness of countenance and his intense—not to say dramatic—earnestness of speech, it is impossible to believe the governor does not wink with the other eye occasionally when he is writing his epoch making state papers.

Minneapolis Journal: These are pretty cold days for the flypaper manufacturer. He sees his insect tangle floating around with no flies to step on it, and his heart is filled with a great desolation, and bitterness seizes him upon him like a cross mother correcting her offspring in the privacy of the front yard.

El Paso Herald: Westinghouse thinks he has invented a device, "friction draft gears," which will render the result of a train collision merely a sort of nervous shudder on the part of the cars with no disposition to play leapfrog; as he is the man who has devised some other railway wonders, notably the air brake, and moreover shows this in practical operation, there is a disposition to take his statements at face value.

Whitewater Register: It used to be regarded as a fundamental right to engage in "free speech" anywhere and with anyone. But there is a freak bill before the Wisconsin legislature which would stick a man in jail if he had a personal interest in a proposition before either houses and should speak to any senator or assemblyman in favor of or against it except in committee. Verily reform has gone mad at Madison.

Pond du Lac Commonweal: America has won new honors in the Kaiser's celebrator cup race, the Atlantic, an American yacht, manned by an American crew having won that international event. The outcome of the race will serve to arouse an increased respect for yachtsmen on this side of the Atlantic, and incidentally may prove something of a consolation to Sir Thomas Lipton, who knows considerable about the matter himself.

Chicago Record-Herald: It is the inefficient, ignorant, obscurantist, but perfunctory that has failed so ignominiously, not the Russian people, who did not want or expect war, who cared nothing about Manchuria, and who would gladly have kept the peace on Japan's terms. It is the policy of repression, a policy that has meant illiteracy, famine and stagnation, that has inevitably led to the unprecedented blow to Russian prestige. The liberals believe that the czar will be compelled to make a direct appeal to the people and their representatives, and that will mean liberty, prosperity and progress.

La Crosse Leader-Press: Before Saturday's battle was fought Japan had indicated that she would demand an indemnity of $1,000,000,000, cession of Port Arthur and Dalny, recognition of her virtual ownership of Korea and ownership of the trans-Manchurian railway. With the prestige of another great naval victory, she may ask even more. She may require the Russian islands in the Pacific and even the fortress and port of Vladivostok, thus shutting off Russia from the eastern sea. Such terms would be the harshest ever imposed on a conquered nation but Japan has the power and the disposition to enforce them and it will be difficult enough for the whole world to say her nay.

St. Paul News: Have you ever stopped to think what subject furnishes the most fruitful topic of conversation these days? It is money! In libraries, in parlors, in street cars, on railroads, in the street—everywhere the sound of "dollars" is heard. "What is it worth?" "How much did it cost?" "How much did you get for it?" "Who won in that last real estate deal?" "Always money, money, money!" Do you announce the death of a friend, the query, "How much money did he leave?" is the first thing to greet your ears. Sorrow for the dead, and sympathy for the living, are both secondary to the importance of whether he died rich. Do you speak of a marriage, the first question is, "Did she do well?" Always money, money, money! Is a child born into the world, "Was it born with a silver or gold spoon in its mouth?" is the first thing asked. And, according to the answer, predictions for its future are either rosy or gray. Always money, money, money! Men have died for it, lied for it, become criminals for it—everything but remained honest for it.

Marquette Eagle-Star: The world of business holds out such attractions to the average youth that all too soon school becomes irksome and, in his opinion, a waste of time and energy. From all sides he hears that those who succeed in business must get it early in life, that a college education unfits a man for practical success outside of the professions. Fortunately we are hearing less of such talk now when statistics show that at least 90 per cent of failures in business and the professions comes from the ranks of those who raised the mental training and discipline of college or academic work. The failure of a college man is noticeable because it is unusual. Much is expected of him because others of his kind have led us to expect much. If then it is a good thing to encourage a boy to extend his period of school work four additional years, to the healthy, active boy who loves out of doors these years must be made to look as attractive as possible.

Chicago Examiner: If Russia's sea power is gone, peace should now be a question of a few weeks. And there will be as much rejoicing in England as in Nippon if Japan has won. England's grip of India may not ever be shaken off by Russia. And that is why England is standing behind Japan. But France may expect trouble if Togo has swept the straits of Korea as clear as he did the waters around Port Arthur. France has an enormously rich territory in South China. In these waters the Russian fleet found refuge and supplies. Japan protested. When this war is over Japan will celebrate her christening as a world power in the blood of the Russians at Port Arthur and off Korea by forcing the French out of Indo-China and moving in her own forces or by giving the territory back to those from whom France took it. In these possibilities are the far-reaching effects of the sea fight in the Korean Straits. And even we may be drawn into the aftermath of this tragedy. Japan may seek to establish a Monroe doctrine in Asia and our Philippines are there.

Chicago Inter Ocean: It is an offense punishable by fine in Belvidere, Ill., to drip oil from oil cans, oil carts or automobiles. The latter may excite gasoline odors to a moderate extent, but they are positively forbidden to drip oils upon the pavements of the town. "Chief of Police Krieger," says the esteemed Belvidere Daily Northwestern of recent date, "wishes it announced through the columns of this paper that this ordinance (the ordinance forbidding the dripping of oil on the streets) will be strictly enforced and that penalties provided in said ordinance will be inflicted upon each and every violator." "Some one this morning," continues the esteemed Northwestern, "carried a can from Buchanan street to the railroad tracks, and a steady stream of oil was traced the entire distance. Some one called the attention of the chief of police to the fact, who in turn called upon the street commissioner, who proceeded to follow up the wagon and wipe up the oil as quickly as possible, the entire distance." This is the genuine city beautiful spirit, and Belvidere is to be congratulated upon reaching, so far as we have any knowledge, the highest ideal that has thus far been attained in this direction. The ignorant or law-defying citizen of Belvidere may neglect to provide him with a car or his car's automobile with a drip pan, but if he does, that is no reason why the streets of Belvidere should remain soiled. The street commissioner is ready, rag in hand, for all calls.

Feminine Cravings. Why does not some one think out something for women to supply the place of the man's whisky-and-soda and cigarette? Surely there must be some harmless equivalent for her. She need not be told it is harmless, because in that case it would lose its zest; but the person who can find some such will be a benefactor to the sex.—London World.

WOODMEN'S "GOAT"
TO BE TABOOED SOONNational Camp To Take Action on This Interesting Question.

"Billie," the lodge goat, and woodcraft will be permanently divorced at the coming head camp in prominent Modern Woodmen, succeed in having desired amendments adopted on that point at the meeting in Milwaukee. They have recommended that the ritual be so thoroughly safeguarded that no portion or passage of it can be construed to warrant the use of any camp goat or other "dangerous appliance." They maintain that the practice detracts from the dignity of an order so large and influential as the Modern Woodmen. Furthermore the society has had several damage suits during its history which originated in the use of instruments of horseplay. It is expected that the delegates will endorse the action at the last head camp in providing for a board of supreme medical examiners, as the department has proved of such value in keeping out poor risks that the wisdom of the move can not be questioned. ## AT THE CITY HALL TOMORROW NIGHT

FURTHER PLANS FOR BIG FOURTH WILL BE MADE.

A GREAT STAY-AT-HOME DAY

All Outings and Picnics Planned Before Announcement of Celebration, Declared Null and Void

Already the news has traveled beyond the limits of the state that Janesville's unique and original Fourth of July celebration is not only to be duplicated this year, but augmented with new features that will make it altogether the greatest in the history of the city. Home people who had planned fishing excusions and trips to the lakes on that eventful holiday quickly banished all such projects when announcement was made of the verdict of the mass-meeting. Everyone who has ever lived in the Bower City, or sojourner here for any length of time at all, knows about that big burlesque circus parade
and is laying his plans to get back here for it this year. That is only part of the celebration, but it is the original part. The Declaration of Independence is read in other cities.
Bands play, orators tell their hearers with patriotic fervor and rockets punch the violet tinted evening skies in many commonwealths. But one city has the Nonesuch Brothers—patriotic showmen, disciples of the strange and weird, originators of startling innovations, gentle parodists
of their neighbors' little follies, kings of whole-souled, side-quivering, sting-less merriment. That city is Janesville.

Multiplying Brotherhood
The sedate clerk or manager of the big store on the corner whom you never saw before with his cloak of dignity removed, will be taming the fierce Numidian lion, known as "Fido"
in everyday life, or balancing himself as a lady bareback rider and tossing kisses to the multitude on that big day. That brotherhood of laugh-makers is a growing one. Men never surprised of possessing a funny idea surprise their neighbors every year. They do it partly because it is a distinction to be one of the Nonesuch, but mostly because the desire to forget themselves and be somebody else—a Filipino headhunter, a home-made giraffe,
a clown in the caravan—just for one day, overpowers them.

Attend the Mass-Meeting
Funds, of course, are necessary to "create" this big red-letter day. Just now this cash is moting out a secluded existence in a thousand pocketbooks. It must be coaxed out for a whirl and the finance committee which is to conduct the flirtation should be cordially received. It is a more or less thankless and unpleasant task to raise the $1,200 or $1,500 needed and everybody in a position to do so should make it as easy as possible.
Tomorrow-night at 7:30 there will be another meeting at the city hall, at which time the reports of committees will be heard and further plans for the celebration outlined. Be there.

CURRENT NEWS NOTES.

New Sunday Train: Beginning
June the fourth, the Sunday train which it has been customary for the C. & N. W. R. R. to run during the summer between Janesville and Fond du Lac will be put on. It will leave here at 7:00 a. m. and arrive from Fond du Lac at 6:40.

Alumni Dues: It was erroneously stated in a recent issue that the High School Alumni Association dues would be 25 cents a month. The dues are to be 25 cents a year.

Jumped Too Soon: James Rice, a hobo who claimed he came from Janesville, jumped from a train at Madison too quickly and was badly injured. He was picked up by the police and cared for.

Dislocated Shoulder: Henry Baker,
chief of police of Madison and a brother of Mrs. E. A. Kemmerer of Janesville, was thrown from his rig in Madison yesterday and dislocated his shoulder.

Yea! Eagles: Important business meeting of the Janesville Aerie this evening at 8 p. m. sharp. Every Eagle should attend. Per Secretary.

Goes to New Castle, Pa.: A. M.
Clapp, formerly connected with the Gazette, has assumed the business management of the New Castle, Pennsylvania, Herald. Mr. Clapp has purchased an interest in the paper.

CAUGHT IN CUPID'S MESHEs.

Koerner-Koerner
The marriage of Mr. Geo. W. Koerner, son of Rev. and Mrs. C. J. Koerner of this city, to Miss Emma Koerner, daughter of the late Rev. Fr.
T. Koerner of Brooklyn, N. Y., will take place at the home of the bride's brother, Dr. Wm. F. Koerner, this evening at 8 o'clock. The Rev. S. Keyl of New York city will be the officiating pastor.

EMPTY HANDED, ON RETURN TRIP

John Dietz Did Not Appreciate the Visit of the United States
Posse.

It would appear that the whole force of the famous Thompson Dam expedition, in which several Rock county men, headed by ex-Sheriff William Appleby, took part, was lost by the restraining order of the United States circuit court judge who ordered the posse to be sure and not shoot Mr.
Dietz but to bring him in alive. Acting under these instructions Mr. Appleby endeavored to have a nice chat with Mr. Dietz, but that gentleman insisted upon bringing with him his Winchester and holding it in such a manner that Mr. Appleby feared it would go off and injure some one.
Mr. Dietz evidently did not appreciate the attentions of the United States
marshals and plainly showed in actions their presence was not desired.
Twice Mr. Appleby walked over from his camp to that of Mr. Dietz for a friendly call. The first time he had not sent his card ahead of him and Mr. Dietz or some of his friends in-considerately poked a gun in his face and told him to "get out."

The other time he went well up the river and then approached and called to Dietz and asked him to come out and talk the situation over. This time the entire force was seen and it consists of Dietz, his two full-grown sons and three men. All are armed with Winchester and the women and small children group around in front of the men so as to protect them from any fire that might be directed against them. Dietz would not talk business and after carrying on the conversation for some time all by himself, Mr. Appleby left.

"It would be a very easy matter to get that man if a criminal warrant could be secured," said Mr. Appleby.
"He is desperate and would doubtless shoot somebody before he is taken,
but he shows himself to be a coward
when he surrounds himself with the women and children every time anybody approaches the dam. He could then use his guns and the attacking party could not without risking the life of one of the little ones or women.
At the last minute, the judge ordered us not to shoot under any circumstances and that spoiled all our chance to take the fellow. But as soon as he does anything so that a criminal warrant can be secured, he will be taken. We will get him yet."

OLD POTATOES NOW SELL FOR LESS THAN A SONG

Rather Than Take Twenty Cents and Under Per Bushel Many Farmers Are Feeding to Hogs.

Rather than sell their potatoes of the vintage of 1904 for twenty cents
or less a bushel, farmers of Rock county are reported to be feeding the tubers to their hogs. There was a large crop last season and the price has not been a living one. One grower was offered 200 bushels at 15 cents, the farmer stating that he had 500 to dispose of before the new crops should be harvested.

STRICKEN AS HE LEFT HIS SAFE

JOHN THOROUGHGOOD DIED IN HIS OFFICE AT NOON TODAY.

FOUND LYING ON THE FLOOR

By Stenographer, as She Entered
After Noon Hour to Resume Her Work—Was Prominent Citizen.

John Thoroughgood, mayor of Janesville from 1893 to 1894 and from 1897 to 1898 and one of the most prominent and highly respected of its citizens, died suddenly in his office
just a few moments after one o'clock this afternoon, supposedly of a stroke of apoplexy. He had returned at one from dinner and seating himself at his desk had commenced some writing relative to a business matter, when it became necessary for him to go to the safe. Crossing the room, he had opened the doors, extracted the document he was looking for, and started to return when he suddenly reeled and fell to the floor. That

Sarah A. Prosho who died shortly after the birth of a daughter, Sarah, in Janesville, Aug. 18, 1868, he was again married, his bride being Miss Annie Cook, daughter of George Cook of this city. Two daughters, Allie and Ada, were born of this union.

Loyal to Janesville
Early identifying himself with Janesville's business interests and manifesting an abiding interest in the city's welfare, Mr. Thoroughgood became one of the leading and most progressive of its citizens. He took a deep interest in the politics of his adopted city and country and after serving two terms as alderman from the second ward, was twice elected to the highest office within the gift of the municipality. His political faith was republican. He was a member of the Masonic order, holding membership with Western Star Lodge No. 14, A. F. & A. M. He also became a member of Oriental Lodge
No. 22, Knights of Pythias, some years ago.

Mrs. Mary A. Smith
Word has been received by Mrs.
E. E. Spaulding of the death of her son, Mrs. Mary A. Smith of Bristol, Conn. Mrs. Smith was the eldest sister of the late Dr. J. B. Whiting and was ninety years of age. She was born in Milford, Conn., April 4, 1819.

JOHN THOROUGHGOOD

these were the circumstances of his last few minutes in this life was shown by the condition of the office as the stenographer, Miss Irene Crowler, turned the knob of the outer door and entered at ten minutes after one. The sight of her employer lying on his back near the safe was the first thing that met her horrified gaze. Some of the employees in the factory were already at work. None had been near enough the office to hear him fall.
Miss Crowler called for help and a moment afterward Drs. Q. O. and Charles Sutherland were summoned.
The body was still warm when they arrived but the pulse-beat was imperceptible. The tidings of what had happened were a terrible shock to the home on Prospect Avenue, whither
the body was at once conveyed.

Had Complained of Illness
"It was either apoplexy or heart disease, probably the former," said Dr.
Charles Sutherland. "He had been complaining of not feeling well for a week or two past and came once to the office to see my father, but did not find him in." That he did not deem his own condition critical was shown by the fact that he continued at his work. The symptoms seem not to have been alarming at any time.
At the box-factory conscription resigned among the employees, "I worked with him forty years in London," was all that one of them could say and he kept repeating this simple little declaration over and over again.

Sixty-Seven Years Old
John Thoroughgood was sixty-seven years of age. He was born in Lan-castershire, England, April 12, 1838, and came to America and located in Janesville in 1865. Beginning as a wood-turner, he secured with F. G.
Stevens in 1877 an interest in the box factory which had been established
three years before by Fred Morse.
The concern was Stevens & Co. Six years later Mr. Stevens sold his interest and Fenner Kimball became a member of the firm, the name again
changing—this time to Thoroughgood & Co. The work prospered under the new management and came to employ from fifty to sixty hands and do an annual business in cigar-boxes, cigar-box lumber, etc., of $75,000.

Was Twice Married
While a resident of England in 1868,
Mr. Thoroughgood was married to

William Hinde
The remains of the late William Hinde, who died suddenly in Spokan, Wash., last Saturday, arrived in Janesville yesterday morning and
in Janesville yesterday morning and the funeral services were conducted in the chapel at the cemetery shortly after two o'clock in the afternoon.
Rev. Vaughan officiating. A. M. Glenn,
Mark Morse, Milton Weaver, Charles
Carr, Horace Cunningham and Thomas Bowles acted as pallbearers. The deceased was born in Winchester,
Guernsey county, Ohio, on Feb. 1, 1836. His wife and a daughter passed away thirteen years ago. Two sons, Elmer and Becher, who were with him in Spokane, accompanied the remains to this city. A. J. Hinde who resides at 162 Prairie avenue is a brother and James Hinde who lives at 160 Milton avenue is a half-brother.
With the former the deceased commenced a butcher-shop here thirteen years ago. He lived a quiet, unob-trusive life and had many sincere friends.

Adolph Rissman
Adolph Rissman, an aged and respected resident of Janesville, died this morning at his home, 402 Glen street, aged seventy-seven years and months. Mr. Rissman was born in Providence, Conn., May 1, 1828.
He came to America in 1869 and settled on a farm near Watertown and later removed to Janesville, where he has made his home for the past seventeen years. He leaves to mourn his loss Henrietta Rissman, his wife, and six children—Gustav Rissman, Janesville; Richard Rissman, Kruger,
Milwaukee; Adolph Rissman, Kruger,
Milwaukee; Mrs. Herman Hilker, Clinton,
and Mrs. Joe Kaiser of Janesville. Three years ago Mr. and Mrs. Rissman celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. The funeral services will be held on Sunday afternoon at two o'clock from his late residence.

FULLY A THOUSAND JANESVILLE
PEOPLE VISIT BELOIT.

BIG WOODMEN PICNIC TODAY

Weather Was Ideal—Many Hundreds
From Other Places Passed
Through on Way.

It is estimated that more than a thousand Janesville people visited Beloit today and helped in celebrating the picnic held there under the auspices of the Woodmen Association of Southern Wisconsin and Northern Illinois. From early this morning, when the first interurban cars reached the Line City from both the north and south, people began to pour in and the stream of incoming humanity
did not cease during the whole day.
The weather was ideal and it was one of the biggest days in the history of the place and probably more persons were on its streets today than ever before. Many of the factories, including the Fairbanks-Morse shops, were closed down to allow the workmen to enjoy the occasion.

Crowds Through Here
Janesville felt the effects of the picnic in the crowds that went directly from here, and those from outlying cities, towns, villages, hamlets and country districts that passed through.
Many from the west, from the stations on the Mineral Point division of the St. Paul road, came here over the steam lines and took the interurban to Beloit. Others who arrived at 10:30 o'clock were forced to wait until 11:20 when the regular Beloit train leaves. Railroad employes from Janesville were sent to Beloit for the day to assist in the handling of the extra trains and the increased business.

Baseball and Drills
The chief attractions were the

EMPHATIC TALK

The Kind That Carries Conviction to Every Jamesville Reader.

Conviction must follow such emphatic proof as is given here. The testimony of Jamesville residents should satisfy the most skeptical. Here is a Jamesville case. Read it and see if doubt can exist in the face of this evidence.

Mr. E. T. Fish, of 355 Ravine street, proprietor of the Fish Dray Line says: "When I was twenty years of age I fell in love with a girl, and ever since that I was troubled more or less with a dull aching pain across the loins. It never laid me up but it was often painful and annoying. Of late years I have gone to a physician every six months and had myself thoroughly examined under the impression that there might be something wrong with my kidneys. The diagnosis always resulting in the physician claiming these organs were sound, but as the pains existed when I happened to notice in my Jamesville papers that Doan's Kidney Pills were guaranteed to cure just such troubles I procured a box at the People's Drug store and took them. Doan's Kidney Pills are a good preparation. My back has not ached since I used them. I have heard others speak very complimentary of them and if I did not know their merit and required such a medicine I would consider it a favor if some one suggested their use to me. For this reason I endorse them." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember, the name, Doan's, and take no other.

STORK TIME

to most women is a term of anxiety, serious thought and sweet anticipation. With the cessation of pain necessary to childbirth, there comes calm nerves, sleep and recuperation.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

does diminish the pain accompanying maternity. With its aid mothers can and do bring healthy, sweet dispositioned and ideal babies into the world. Morning sickness, sore breasts and expanding organs, are relieved by this penetrating and relaxing liniment.

Among the manifold aids to childbirth Mother's Friend has grown in popularity and gained a prestige among rich women as well as poor; it is found and welcomed in the mansion as well as in the cabin.

By lessening the mother's agony of mind and diminishing pain a beautiful influence is wrought upon the child, and instead of peevish, ill-tempered and sickly forms you have healthy, laughing humanity, retaining a blessing ever to you and its country.

CORN GROWTH IS VERY SLOW

Lack of Germination, Owing to Cool Weather, Forces Replanting.

RUST APPEARS IN SIX STATES

Blackheads Have Made Their Appearance in Illinois Wheat Fields, Threatening to Play Havoc With the Winter Variety Yield.

Washington, June 1.—The following is the general summary of the weekly crop report of the weather bureau:

During the week ended May 29 most of the country experienced unfavorable temperature. Rains interfered with farm work in portions of the South Atlantic and East Gulf states, Tennessee and over an area extending from central Texas northward to South Dakota, and in portions of the lake region. At the close of the week rain was much needed in New England and the Middle Atlantic states, and sunshine and warmth in the South Atlantic and East Gulf states and the Missouri valley.

Cold Weather Retards Crops. Corn planting is largely finished, except in the lake region, Ohio valley and northern portion of the Middle Atlantic states. Throughout the principal corn states germination and growth of corn have been very slow, owing to cool weather, and more than the usual amount of replanting will be necessary. In the central gulf states part of the crop has been laid by. In this region corn has suffered considerably from overflows. In northern Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Tennessee corn is much in need of cultivation.

Winter wheat has suffered slight deterioration in portions of the central and western districts of the winter wheat belt, but it continues promising in the eastern districts, an improvement being reported from Ohio.

Rust and Blackheads. Reports of injury from rust continue from Kentucky, Tennessee, Missouri, Oklahoma and Texas, and rust and blackheads are appearing in Illinois. Generally the reports indicate that wheat is heading low. In California the crop is maturing rapidly and an average yield is indicated. In Oregon and Washington growth has been rapid, too rank growth being reported from Oregon, where it is in danger of lodging.

Although, freezing temperatures occurred in the northern portion of the spring wheat region, spring wheat is reported as in good condition in Minnesota, and while frost in North Dakota proved injurious, the crop in that state has not been seriously damaged. Over the southern portion of the spring wheat region the crop has made more favorable progress, although growth has been slow. On the north Pacific coast spring wheat is much improved in Washington, but in Oregon it has advanced slowly.

Oat Promise Generally Good. In the Dakotas, Minnesota and Nebraska oats have made slow growth, and the crop has suffered deterioration in Texas and portions of the Middle Atlantic states, but elsewhere and in principal producing states the outlook continues very promising.

Throughout nearly the whole of the cotton belt cotton is much in need of cultivation, and reports of abandoned fields are received from the Carolinas, Georgia, Alabama and Louisiana. Good stands are generally reported, but much planting remains to be done in northern Texas, and planting is unfinished in Arkansas. In southern Texas and in portions of the central and eastern districts the situation is improved, and the crop is doing well in localities. Squares are now forming in the southern portions of the central and eastern districts. Boll weevils are increasing in Texas. The general outlook for a good crop of hay continues promising.

PAYS FINE TO MUSICIAN'S UNION

Importation of French Players Costs Walter Damrosch $1,000.

New York, June 1.—The controversy that has been in progress for the last three weeks between Walter Damrosch and the Mutual Musical Protection Union of New York has been settled temporarily at least. President Weber of the American Federation of Musicians has decided that the five French musicians in question shall be admitted to the union, but that Mr. Damrosch shall pay a fine of $1,000 because he did not advertise sufficiently in this country the fact that there were five important vacancies in the New York symphony orchestra, thereby giving musicians here a more general chance to compete for the places.

TACOMA SEEKING TO CONTROL THE TRADE

Much Freight Travel for the Orient Passes Through Washington City.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Tacoma, Washington, June 1.—The unprecedented amount of export merchandise from the Pacific coast, Puget Sound in particular, during the last five or six months, has caused no little comment in marine circles. The general opinion is that the war in the Orient has been a prominent factor in stimulating trade.

According to a well known local shipping man, a great deal of freight heretofore shipped from Eastern states via the Atlantic seaboard, thence across the Atlantic and through the Suez canal to China and Japan, has diverted to the Pacific coast and the Western route by reason of the presence of the Russian squadron in the Atlantic and Eastern waters.

It is said the Atlantic and Mediterranean are well patronized by Russian vessels and the danger of capture is much greater than in transit across the Pacific. Consequently exports from this coast have shown a wonderful increase. One disadvantage of shipping from the East via the Pacific coast is the long railroad haul across the continent, but it is said that the rates from Pittsburg and cities in that vicinity to Japan are about equal either via the Pacific or Atlantic.

Cotton Shipments are Heavy. The exports to Japan have consisted of immense quantities of flour, machinery, locomotives, steel rails, raw cotton, leather, domestics and every conceivable article needed by man for food, shelter and raiment. The shipments of cotton are the heaviest in the history of the Pacific coast, while the amount of machinery and steel exported has never before been equalled here.

Almost every steamer sailing from Tacoma in months has carried locomotives, for there has been a great demand for railroad equipment from Japan. In building the railroad in Corea it is said that Japan stripped her own railroads of engines and other equipment, and it was necessary to replenish the rolling stock of her own roads. Consequently it could truthfully be stated by shippers that the locomotives and machinery were for peaceful purposes. Electrical machinery, besides flour and sawmill paraphernalia have gone to the Far East in shipload lots.

While Japan has been buying many million dollars' worth of goods, China has been not far behind. Never before have the exports of domestics and cotton pieces been so great as in the last six months and this product goes to Chinese ports. The cotton products come from the mills of New England and the Southern states.

Orient Buying Raw Material. "It is a remarkable fact, but true nevertheless," added this well informed marine man, "that where we were shipping the finished product a few years ago, Oriental countries are buying raw materials now. We formerly exported wire bails and cigarettes in great quantities. Now these have dwindled considerably and are going crude wire and leather goods. The Orient is getting machinery and doing its own manufacturing. Japan is in advance of China as evidenced by the fact that China imports goods, while Japan buys the raw cotton and makes the cloth."

While much of the activity in exports can be attributed to the fact that on July 1, Japan's heavy war tax goes into effect as applying to imports, there is evidence that imports will continue to be heavy for some time. It is more than likely that there will be some cessation as soon as the war tax is in force, but for months ahead, Dodwell & Co. have cargoes booked for their regular liners of the White and Blue Flannel fleets.

The great amount of merchandise offered for shipment in the last few months resulted in the chartering of eight large steamers by Dodwell & Co., jointly with Waterhouse & Co., to transport freight which the regular fleets could not handle. The tramps engaged for this purpose include the British steamers Nairn, Forest Brook, Forerick, Como, Bedouin, Ocean Monarch, Knight Errant and Saint Helena.

Big Shipments Since February 1. All of these vessels with the exception of the last two named have been in Tacoma, and as they will average at least 3,000 tons each, the aggregate shows that they will have taken 40,000 tons of surplus freight across the Pacific since February 1. The goods not included several full cargoes of rails or several other tramps engaged in the latter part of 1904 or steamers like the Ivydene, Beira and Tottenham, which are carrying flour and forage cargoes for other firms. The Como left Tacoma with the distinction of taking the largest cargo of cotton ever shipped in one vessel from any Pacific coast port. She took 12,300 bales.

The rush of exports has not been confined to Tacoma alone, but San Francisco and other ports of the coast have been equally busy. Present conditions are in strong contrast to times in the past when shipping agents were at times unable to get sufficient freight for ballast for their vessels. Local agents look forward to a great deal of freight in the future.

ST. LOUIS BANK DOORS ARE SHUT

Postoffice Department Recommends That Fraud Order Be Issued.

CLAIM IRREGULARITIES EXIST

Conditions Under Which Institution May Be Reopened Include Restoration of $411,000 Borrowed by President Lewis—Must Elect Directors.

St. Louis, Mo., June 1.—Acting on reports by the postoffice department Assistant United States Attorney Goodwin in Washington recommending that a fraud order be issued against the People's United States Bank and on reports made by State Bank Examiners Cook and Nicolls, Secretary of State Swanger Wednesday took charge of the affairs and the assets of this $2,500,000 institution, organized by E. G. Lewis, publisher of the Woman's Magazine and head of several well known St. Louis enterprises.

Secretary Swanger has issued what in effect is an ultimatum to Mr. Lewis, containing the provisions on which he may permit the bank to reopen for business.

Loan Must Be Repaid.

Among these exactions are that the $411,000 borrowed from the bank by its president, E. G. Lewis, personally or for corporations dominated by him, immediately shall be repaid to the bank; that the present board of directors, composed of Lewis' employees in the Lewis Publishing company, shall be abolished and replaced with another board to be approved by the secretary of state's office; that the affairs of Lewis' other enterprises shall be kept separate and distinct from those of the bank and that the names of all the 90,000 stockholders with their residences and amount of stock held by each shall properly and accurately be enrolled on the books of the bank.

Says He Asked Investigation.

Mr. Lewis, when seen, said: "I have not had time to give Mr. Swanger's demands proper consideration. As for the report made by the postoffice department recommending that a fraud order be issued, all I have to say is that such a recommendation is a long way from the issuance of such an order. I invited this investigation of my bank and my business by the government."

The report prepared for the assistant attorney general by Inspectors Stice, Fulton and Sullivan alleges gross misrepresentation and misstatement of facts on the part of Lewis in organizing the bank; declares that the sole purpose of the scheme was to provide a steady and easy flow of money needed by other corporations in which he is largely interested; that he borrowed the money of the bank almost as fast as it came in for his personal account, for his magazine or for other corporations dominated by him and that some of these loans were entirely unsecured.

Expenditures Are Large.

It is further charged that he drew a large salary from the bank as president for several months before the bank was organized and charged to the account of the bank $146,375 for "promotion" expenses; also that he appointed out of his own employees in the publishing business all the directors of the bank and so organized and promoted it that the large body of stockholders have absolutely no voice in the control of its affairs, which rests entirely in his hands.

Secretary Swanger also insists that Lewis must reimburse the bank with the amount of $146,375, charges against it for expenses of promotion, and that the original capital stock be paid in immediately out of the funds received from subscribers at the time the charter was taken out.

LITTLE ALFONSO'S DEATH SOUGHT BY AN ANARCHIST

The Spanish King And French President Narrowly Escape Death at Hands Of Bomb Thrower.

[SPECIAL BY STAFFS-M.H.]

Paris, June 1.—King Alfonso went to Chailons today to witness the army maneuvers accompanied by President Loubet. Before starting King Alfonso attended the early services at the Catholic Church of Saint Clothilde, where he offered thanks for his escape from the hands of the bomb-thrower. The police have made fifteen additional arrests this morning of suspected anarchists, but it is certain the man who threw the bomb has not been captured yet.

The attempt upon the lives of King Alfonso and President Loubet took place last evening as the two rulers were leaving the opera after midnight. An anarchist threw a lighted bomb in the direction of the two rulers and missed them by but a few inches, striking a soldier who stood on guard and exploded on the ground. The royal party proceeded unhurt on its way while several persons in the crowd and soldiers were injured.

A dozen persons were injured, five seriously. The eye of one child was knocked out. A number of cavalry horses, forming the escort, were killed or maimed.

Late this morning the police reported that Paul Carlier, a stenographer of the chamber of deputies, was among the wounded, having been struck in the groin by the fragment of a bomb. The woman hurt proved to be a dressmaker. Her injuries are not dangerous. Another woman had her dress torn to ribbons by the force of the explosion.

The policemen are the most seriously wounded. One received a fragment of the bomb in the back, while another was seriously injured in the leg.

The opera performance which came so near to fatal termination was a gala event. The performance went without a hitch. His majesty chatted gayly with President Loubet during the intermissions, and at the close the orchestra again played the national hymns of the two countries and the king and president arose to leave.

They proceeded down the grand staircase, and arrived at the gayly illuminated and decorated Place de l'Opera, where the royal carriage awaited them. The king and president took seats side by side and the vehicle started off surrounded by several squadrons of cuirassiers towards the Avenue de l'Opera.

ALEXANDER AND HYDE HOLD A CONFERENCE

Investigation Report Was So Severe That It Calls for Their Removal.

[SPECIAL BY STAFFS-M.H.]

New York, June 1.—The contents of the Frick report of the Equitable Life Assurance society is leaking out. It is most radical, declaring and insisting that all who profited as "members" James H. Hyde and associates, and the syndicates must make restitution. The report practically demands the removal of Alexander, Hyde and Tarbell. The declaration is made that waste and extravagance existed in practically every department of the society and that Alexander's office is managed with laxity and negligence. He censures the system prevailing in Hyde's office, by which the clerks were paid enormous salaries, the object being to aid the salary of Hyde. Alexander and Hyde held conferences with their counsel today in view of protecting their interests. The board meeting is tomorrow.

UNHAPPY COUPLES DIVORCED TODAY

H. H. McDaniel Secured Separation From Wife Cora — Margaret Schmidt from Husband, Otto.

Two decrees for divorce were granted today. Ethers, Jeffris, Mount & Newhouse, representing the plaintiffs in the actions, and the defendants in both cases failing to appear.

H. H. McDaniel, a painter by trade, was married to Cora A. McDaniel on Nov. 5, 1899, in Manchester, Coffee county, Tennessee. He asserted in his complaint that without any cause she deserted him on the 7th of October, 1902. Margaret Schmidt and Otto Schmidt were married on Jan. 22, 1901, at Cedarville, Iowa. The summons were served on the husband at Rockford. In her complaint the wife alleged cruel and inhuman treatment, including personal violence and threats to kill, and non-support. Schmidt was formerly a baker in this city.

LATE REPORTS OF THE BATTLE

The convocation of a national assembly is confidently expected.

The seriousness of the situation seems to be fully realized at Tsarskoe-Selo, where the emperor assembled practically all the members of the imperial family to decide on the course to pursue. A series of conferences was held to determine not only the question of peace, but whether it is advisable to yield to the popular demand for a national assembly, which has been given an enormous impetus by the naval department. Some of the members of the imperial family are understood to be urging the emperor to retrieve the situation by making common cause with the people against the bureaucracy. The emperor has decided to send his brother Grand Duke Michael, to attend the marriage of Crown Prince Frederick William of Germany instead of his uncle, Grand Duke Vladimir, whose more mature judgment and advice the emperor regards as very important in the present crisis.

FOREIGNERS THROG TO AMERICA'S SHORES

Immigration Statistics Show That 521,320 Persons Reached the U. S. in Past Half Year.

Washington, June 1.—Immigration statistics indicate that the tide is rising rapidly. For the six months ending April 30, 1905, there was admitted into this country 521,320 immigrants, an increase over the high record for the corresponding period of 1903 of 29 per cent and 176,941 in excess of the immigration for the same six months last year.

The number debarré shows an increase of only 4 per cent; the total for this year being 1,416, as compared with 4,750 in 1903 and 2,853 last year. Immigration from Russia during the six months mentioned has forged ahead with great strides. In 1903 the total was 59,107; in 1904 67,981, and in 1905 95,805, an increase over 1903 of 62 per cent.

During the month of April alone the number of aliens arriving was 135,094, an increase of 9 per cent over 1903. Last year the arrivals aggregated 91,368. In April, 1903, there were 1120 aliens debarré and April this year with more immigrants arriving there were but 865 debarré, a decrease of 23 per cent. There were admitted from Russia alone this month 19,505 as compared with 7,897 last year and 16,071 in 1905, a gain of 21 per cent over 1903.

The greatest number of immigrants continue to come from Italy, Hungary, Russia and Austria in the order named, Italy sending 41,428 during the month of April, an increase of 7,107 over the same month last year. The only European countries that show any decrease in the immigration are Denmark, Germany, the Netherlands, Norway and Portugal.

There was landed at the port of New York during the month 108,438, of which 634 were debarré and 63 returned after landing. The reasons for debarré were: idiots 1, insane 12, paupers or likely to become public charges 315, loathsome or dangerous contagious diseases 47, convicts 2, prostitutes and procurers 6, contract laborers 51.

THE STATE CENSUS BEGAN IN WISCONSIN

June First Sees the Work of Discovering the Population, Start in Earnest.

Census enumerators throughout the state began the task of the state industrial census today and a force of clerks under the direction of the secretary of state and the supervision of Thomas Herrell, head of the state census bureau, have sent out the final blanks and copies of instructions to the enumerators. In addition to statistics in regard to the population, personal description, nativity and occupation or profession, more industrial statistics than any previous state census will be gathered this year. The blanks include information regarding agriculture, dairying, manufacturing and mining, the state militia, soldiers and sailors and other information of a similar nature. Under the state census laws the penalty for falsification of any figures given an enumerator is $250, and a heavy fine is also provided for refusal to answer any question asked. Enumerators are urged to impress upon those who do show a willingness to answer questions, that the information sought is confidential, and that its only use will be to deduce facts as regards the progress of the state numerically and industrially. While the work is under the supervision of the state census bureau, the machinery used is provided by the county clerks of the state and under the direction of the town, city and village clerks in the districts within the county.

SMALL WANDERER PICKED UP TODAY

Twelve Year Old Boy Who Ran Away From Farm Near Waukesha, Found in Park at Daylight.

Irving Adolph, a twelve-year-old boy, was picked up in the Courthouse park by one of the officers at an early hour this morning. He gave his home as La Crosse but said that he had been farming out some time ago to a farmer by the name of Dan Rlesse who lives between Waukesha and Genesee. The boy had no complaint to make against the farmer except that he beat him sometimes over the back. With another lad by the name of John Kenosha who had been paroled out to work on a neighboring farm, he had decided to run away. The two had some disagreement at Milton Junction and the younger plodded on to Janesville. Marshal Comstock notified the Waukesha school and had word sent to the Waukesha county farmer. In the meantime Postmaster Kenyon will take charge of the boy. He is well dressed and admits that he had "good food" and did not have to work hard.

TELLS OF CONSPIRACY TO ROB UNITED STATES

George E. Lorenz Appears as Witness for the Government in the Postal Fraud Cases at Washington.

Washington, June 1.—Dr. George E. Lorenz of Toledo, O., who was convicted with August W. Machen and Samuel and Diller B. Graft on charges of conspiracy to defraud the government in connection with contracts for furnishing supplies for the postoffice department, turned state's evidence in the trial of William C. Crawford, who is charged with conspiracy. Machen and Lorenz were indicted jointly with Crawford. The former pleaded guilty and was sentenced to an additional two years in the penitentiary at Moundsville, W. Va. Lorenz was granted a separate trial.

Lorenz declared that an agreement had been formed by himself, Machen and Crawford to get contracts to furnish letter carrier satchels to the postoffice department and that they had shared in the profits. The contracts were gained by reason of Machen's connection with the supply division of the postoffice department and were filled by Crawford, who was the general manager of the Postal Device and Lock company of New York. Lorenz was the go-between.

Speaking of the arrangement between the three men, Lorenz called it a subsidiary company. He was asked by Holmes Conrad, special counsel for the government, who were meant by "subsidiary company," and he said Machen, Crawford and himself.

"Who first suggested the division of the profits under the contract obtained by Crawford's company?" asked Mr. Conrad.

"Machen was in my room and said there should be some agreement as to the division of the spoils," was the reply. "He said: 'Crawford may suggest that he receive one-fourth, and that one-half shall come to me. If he does, that will be satisfactory to me.' Machen then said that whatever the arrangement, he and I should divide our shares equally. That is, if three-fourths came to us, we would divide it."

Proposals Not Plentiful.

It is a popular fallacy that proposals grow like fruit on the Santa Claus tree, merely waiting for us to put out our hands and pluck one. One of Women's Ways.

When the women see the heroine in the hero's arms on the stage, when they read in the last chapter of a book that the hero and heroine are embracing, how they applaud! senate had a spirited debate on "dam" bills. Frear opposing such valuable public grants for private purposes and he declared the value of rights already granted amounted to twenty-five million dollars, the interest on which would be more than all the taxes by the railroads. Senators McGilivray and Sanborn defended the dam grants as costing the state nothing and giving valuable benefits to the public in assisting in lumbering, improving navigation, engaging capital and in building up great industries. The dam bills went through. Frear led the fight on the drastic measure to prevent "pernicious activity" and campaign contributors of great corporations in politics. The governor sent a message to the senate remonstrating against the committee report to the bill to provide machinery to recover unpaid taxes from the railroads.

STATE NOTES

Charles E. Wilder of Kenosha is to receive a legacy of $50,000 from the estate of his aunt, the late Mrs. G. P. Lord, whose will has just been filed for probate at Elgin, Ill.

Rudolph A. Karges of Burlington has been elected to the Athenaeum joint debate team at the state university in place of Harry Apple, Milwaukee, resigned.

Lot owners in Mound cemetery, Racine, charged that Tuesday three men with their coats off were playing leapfrog by jumping over the monuments and performing other acrobatic feats.

Edward Hensel, who was arrested at Kenosha on Sunday on a charge of holding up a grocery store, wishes to plead guilty. The district attorney will ask that he be given the extreme penalty.

Fire in the cheese warehouses in Plymouth yesterday occasioned a loss of several thousand dollars. H. J. Ramford was the chief loser, while A. C. Dow & Co. and H. Wheeler sustained minor losses.

The eleventh annual meeting of the Southern Wisconsin Dental association, in session at Racine, chose Milwaukee as the next place of meeting, and officers were elected as follows: President, J. J. Wright, Milwaukee; first vice-president, C. F. Rodolf, Muscoda, Wis.; second vice-president, Dr. T. Heidbrink, Union Grove; secretary, C. W. Collier, Clinton, Wis.; and treasurer, W. G. Hales, Mineral Point.

The mystery surrounding the disappearance of Elton Lundquist from Kenosha ten years ago was cleared away when Nicholas A. Lundquist, his father, found the remains of the boy in a morgue at Racine. Under the name of Edward Lund, Lundquist had been running a shooting gallery at Racine. He was accidentally shot a week ago, dying Tuesday. The parents of the man had no knowledge that he was in Wisconsin, notwithstanding that he was working within ten miles of the old homestead.

A TEN-MILE RUN CROSS COUNTRY

Was Enjoyed by Five Y. M. C. A. Athletes Last Evening—Time One Hour and Thirty Minutes.

On a ten-mile cross-country run out beyond the cemeteries, over the Four Mile bridge, past the county farm, down through the stone quarry road, into the city by way of Bluff street, five Y. M. C. A. athletes established a record of one hour and thirty minutes last evening and came back to the association building in prime condition for several additional miles. Those who made the run were Fred Wilkerson, Alfred Griswold, Ernest Clark, Arthur Clark and Rollo Dobson.
